MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs OfficeSUBJECT: Invitation to Address the National Defense University
Armed Forces College

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline an invitation to address students of the National Defense University Armed Forces Staff College in Norfolk, Virginia, on Wednesday, 23 October, or a mutually convenient date.

2. Background: Commandant of the College, Major General K. A. Jolemore, USA, has invited you to address the Armed Forces Staff College for 45 minutes, beginning at 10:00 a.m., followed by a short break and 45 minutes of Questions and Answers. If your schedule permits, you are invited to stay for lunch with students and faculty members.

You could expect an audience of approximately 284 students that would include Army, Air Force, Navy, and Marine Corps Majors, Lt. Commanders, and Lt. Colonels. The class also includes civilian officials from defense-related agencies such as NSA, DIA, CIA, State Department, and the armed forces. The average age of the students is 35, with about 13 years of military or federal experience; some 65 percent have advanced degrees (for additional information on methods of instruction, see Attachment A opposite.) All participants will have TOP SECRET clearances. Although officers from allied nations attend the course, they will not be included in this meeting. It is the rule of the college that the speaker determines the makeup of the audience.

You have been asked to speak on Intelligence Support in the Joint Environment or any other topic of your choosing. The Director of DIA and Commandant of the Marine Corps are scheduled to speak to the students. Senior officials from the FBI, NSA, and the other services will also address the college during the year. (For additional information on the college, see

3. Recommendation: The Armed Forces Staff College would be a good group for us to address. Dick Kerr spoke to the last class and was well received.
You may wish to defer to Kerr or an equivalent officer, in which case we will work it out for you.

REPLY TO ATTENTION OF:

Mr. John M. McMahon
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. McMahon:

Now that the Class of 1985 is graduated and I have had a chance to look over the student critique sheets as well as all the faculty inputs I wanted to write you and thank you again for your superb contribution to our program this past academic year.

You were one of the very best speakers of the entire year based on evaluations by students and faculty alike, and I thought you would enjoy knowing that you had done so well. As you know, our students and faculty are a tough audience and get to hear a large number of extraordinarily fine speakers, but they are also an appreciative audience and I am sure would heartily endorse this letter of thank you.

We already are planning for the Class of 1986 and have a complete list of all the new students. Ambassador Vernon Walters will be our convocation speaker on 6 August and we have already lined up an outstanding group of speakers in the first few weeks. We would very much like you to return during our next academic year to challenge and enlighten the new class. You will be hearing from us well in advance so we can work out a suitable date.

Congratulations again for making our "top speakers" list.

Sincerely,

Perry M. Smith
